designed to meet the needs of today's students, Lowdermilk's Maternity Nursing, 8th Edition, Revised Reprint addresses the fundamentals of maternity nursing with a concise, focused presentation of the care of women during the childbearing years, integrating considerations for family, culture, and health promotion into the continuum of care. It also addresses community-based care to emphasize that nursing care takes place in many settings. Maternity nursing focuses on childbearing issues and concerns, including care of the newborn as well as wellness promotion and management of common women's health problems. Critical thinking exercises present case studies of real life situations and corresponding critical thinking questions to help you develop your analytical skills. A helpful appendix identifies text content that reflects the QSEN competencies: patient centered care, teamwork and collaboration, evidence-based practice, quality improvement, safety, and informatics to assist you in developing competencies to provide safe and effective nursing care. A new focus on the family recognizes the nurse's need to integrate the family in the care of the mother and newborn and the importance of the role of the mother to the wellbeing of the family. New content updates throughout, including information on the late preterm infant and associated concerns such as feeding guidelines, on prioritization and delegation where relevant and centering pregnancy, a new model of health care that brings women together in groups for their care. New evidence-based practice content focuses your attention on how to use current research to improve patient outcomes. New improved readability helps you learn more efficiently with shorter, more focused content discussions. A new 21st century maternity nursing culturally competent community focused chapter combines introductory material, culture and community into one chapter to help you focus on key content and concepts. New streamlined content highlights the most essential need-to-know information.
