experiencing the afterlife provides the first sustained analysis of popular vernacular depictions of the afterlife written in italy before the divine comedy by authors such as uguccione da lodi giacomino da verona and bonvesin da la riva manuele gragnolati uses his readings of these poets to provide a new interpretation of dante s work combining elements from several disciplines he investigates the richness of high medieval eschatology and the concept of personal identity it expresses gragnolati is particularly concerned with how the notions of body and pain characteristic of medieval spirituality and devotion inform the eschatological representations of the time especially in their paradoxical urge to stress at once the physical experience of the separated soul and the final necessity of bodily resurrection by integrating lesser known texts and scholarship from other disciplines into the specialized field of dante studies gragnolati sheds new light on some of the most vigorously debated and crucial questions raised by the divine comedy including the embryological discourse of purgatorio 25 the relation between the soul s experience of pain in purgatory and the devotion that late medieval culture expressed toward christ s suffering and the significance of the audacious vision of resurrected bodies that dante the pilgrim enjoys at the end of his journey at the same time gragnolati brings these questions back into contemporary discussions of medieval eschatology and opens new perspectives for current and future work on embodiment and identity scholars and students of dante and italian studies as well as those in medieval history religion culture and art history will be rewarded by the fresh insights contained in experiencing the afterlife

how do people in japan conceive of life after death although many japanese today claim that on their archipelago there has never been much interest in this topic the evidence presented here shows otherwise documenting a rich range of historical as well as contemporary scenarios that present life as going on after death these essays also show individuals and whole communities acting on the belief that the line between the living and the dead is porous and that it makes sense even now to practice the life one will have after becoming dead they thus not only bring forward aspects of japan obscured until now but also can contribute to our own current discussions of life dying and death at the very foundation of religious faith and hope is a belief that consciousness will survive death and that we will live on in another dimension of reality but that foundation easily crumbles when scientific minds are unable to wrap their brains around an afterlife when they are unable to visualize a non material world as the foundation gives way the philosophy of materialism takes hold and gives rise to moral decadence egocentricity hypocrisy hatred disorder flux strife chaos and fear such seems to be the state of the world today there is so much to be found outside the highly guarded boundaries of mainstream science and orthodox religion for those willing to open their minds to it for those willing to recognize that the dissemination of truth did not stop with the good books of organized religion and cannot always be found in the laboratory beginning in 1848 a number of sensitive people began developing as mediums bringing forth communications from the spirit world one of the skeptics investigating the popular madness was professor robert hare of the university of pennsylvania intending to debunk it all hare would after extensive research become a believer when he asked an apparently advanced spirit what it was all about he was told that it was a deliberate effort on the part of the inhabitants of the higher spheres to break through the partition which has interfered with the attainment by mortals of a correct idea of their destiny after death unfortunately both orthodox religion and mainstream science acting out of ego and fear have rebuked the efforts of those inhabitants of the higher spheres to enlighten us thus permitting the foundations of both faith and hope to further crumble in the afterlife revealed michael tymn sets forth some of the most credible messages from the spirits relative to the nature of their world instead of a heaven hell dichotomy we are told that there are many levels or as jesus is quoted many mansions and that we cross over to the other side based on what might be called a moral specific gravity we discover a divine plan one of attainment and attunement of gradual spiritual growth of evolution of spirit through progressively higher planes we see how we are really souls occupying bodies rather than bodies housing souls and how our souls are progressing in finding their way back to oneness with the creator through the challenges the adversities the trials and tribulations offered us in a particular lifetime
