this well crafted book probes the key dimensions of africa s existential predicament it constitutes an intellectual response to a gnawing african situation the starting point for grasping africa s social and religious quest beyond split explanations of external versus internal factors e g colonization slavery vs leadership cultural values this study accounts more comprehensively for emergent issues shaping this situation the situation reflects a gamut of problems in traditional african religion and material culture which hitherto defines african communality politics and destinies vis à vis the cosmos and nature thus african religion and communities each with its own attendant values do not operate by critical engagement with larger issues of society and civilization especially those shaped by the advent of post modernity rather they operate via adaptation the communal drive for natural and social harmony inevitably produces a preservationist view of culture leaving things as they are this study takes an integrative approach to religion society and civilization eschews dichotomies and broadly defines and re signifies life and wholeness as a true end of africans quest today public righteousness the performative ethics of human flourishing is driven by the idea that part of what manifests as a disorderly display of virtue in public culture is underlined by the desire to see a more righteous society and an expression of the will to enact such an ideal world into reality this book re structures the ferment of such public displays and fashions an ethic that overturns the ostentatious signals of self righteousness and the fierce contest of animating visions this book engages the work of social ethicist nimi wariboko to explore an idea of public righteousness in place of smug superiority and phony pieties the performative ethics that inaugurate this public righteousness offer an intellectual and moral competence that establishes rectitude and culminates in human flourishing in prophecy today reflections from a southern african context a group of theologians and scholars of religion from zambia and south africa reflects upon these questions anthropologists biblical scholars practical theologians and others shine their light on what prophecy can mean today in this context this book aims at stimulating a continuing southern african discourse on this very interesting and relevant aspect of christianity in our region the book consists of 15 different articles by well known scholars and has been ably compiled and edited by dr hermen kroesbergen lecturer in systematic theology and philosophy of religion at justo mwale university lusaka zambia pentecostalism is a growing movement in world christianity however the growth of pentecostalism in south africa has faced some challenges including the abuse of religion by some prophets this book first names these prophets and the churches they lead in south africa and then makes use of literary and media analysis to analyse the religious practices by the prophets in relation to cultism additionally the book analyses the celebrity cult and how it helps promote the prophets in south africa the purpose of this book is threefold first to draw parallels between the abuse of religion and cultism second to illustrate that it is cultic tendencies including the celebrity cult that has given rise to many prophets in south africa last to showcase that the challenge for many of these prophets is that the pentecostal tradition is actually anti cultism and thus there is a need for them to rethink their cultic tendencies in order for them to be truly relevant in a south african context africans prevailing interest in the prosperity gospel is not only connected to the influence of american prosperity teachers reaching a worldwide audience through their imaginative use of the media but is also related to the african worldview and african traditional religion and its lasting influence on contemporary africans and the way they think about prosperity as well as their interest in prosperity in post colonial africa the research from a classical pentecostal perspective about the impact of the prosperity message on africa is necessary timely and relevant because of its influence in the african pentecostal movement and its potential to harm the faith of believers leading to the potential disillusionment of christian believers who put their trust and money in formulas and recipes that seemingly only work for others especially the prosperity leaders who lead by example with incredulous riches and wealth

this book epitomizes the understanding that to excel you have to believe in yourself and your ability to achieve and that part of this process is enabled by mentorship looking at the history of women in science or academia it is apparent that women have struggled long and hard to be recognised as legitimate scientists or academics and that women of colour are confronted with double jeopardy of both race and gender not only in south africa but at a global level gender equity in science or academia and racial diversity are moral and necessary imperatives in academia women are strongly represented in the early phases of their academic careers yet there is an attrition in the number of women who are associate professors and full professors this leaky pipeline not only wastes women s education and potential preventing much needed diversity in academia but more profoundly restricts women s goals and rights this is the story of deborah a prophetess a woman of courage and faith who led god s people to a battle of an impossible victory relieve this exciting and life changing story of deborah judge and warrior a man who had a visitation from god and was given a second chance to live in this book he explain the experience and also encourage the readers about god s love he also tell what he saw about this season we are in now this book is a must read for all who want to know more about the creator of everything

christopher love 1618 1651 was a fiery and practical puritan preacher christopher love harvests sweet biblical honey from the word of god concerning the ascension of jesus christ and the coming of christ again to judgment though love carefully refutes the 1000 year earthly millennial reign of christ and the idea of soul sleep he is more focused on demonstrating the benefits of christ s ascension and second coming his main text is john 14 3 and if i go and prepare a place for you i will come again and receive you unto myself that where i am there ye may be also christ s ascension is a ground of great comfort and great advantage to all his people while they dwell here on earth practically no christian should be afraid to die because your christ is in heaven and when you die as love says death is but a trapdoor to let you into endless joy where christ is the benefits of christ s coming to judgment is his second topic as much of an unpopular idea as judgment may be love says that the benefit of christ s coming is the particular point christ means when he says and receive you to myself so if the spirit that raised up christ from the dead dwells in you and you have the graces of the spirit that same spirit shall quicken your mortal bodies therefore the bodies of the elect shall be raised from the dead and received into glory with the soul when christ returns this is an exceedingly comforting thought for believers christ at his second coming receives his elect to himself in body and soul that they might be forever present where jesus christ is in heaven which is christ s exhortation to believers that where i am there you may be also that is they are with christ in heaven for eternity this work is not a scan or facsimile has been carefully transcribed by hand being made easy to read in modern english and has an active table of contents for electronic versions
